9. Notice of dates of payment.—The pay-master shall display, in conspicuous place at/or near the main entrance of the Factory/Industrial establishment a notice, in English and Hindi, giving for not less than two months in advance, the days on which wages are to be paid.

Section 26 (3) (e), (f) and (h):

10. Prescribed authority.—The Labour Commissioner shall be the authority competent to approve, under sub-section (1) of section 8, of the Act, acts and omissions in respect of which fines may be imposed and, under sub-section (8) of section 8, of the Act, the purposes on which the proceeds of fines shall be expended.

11. Application in respect of fines.—Every employer requiring the power to impose fines in respect of any acts and omissions on the part of employed persons shall send to the Labour Commissioner,—

- (a) a list, in English, in duplicate, clearly defining such acts and omissions;
- (b) in cases where the employer himself does not intend to be the sole person empowered to impose fines, a list, in duplicate showing those appointments in his factory/industrial establishment of which the incumbents may pass orders imposing fines and the class of establishment on which the incumbent of each such appointment may impose fine.

12. Approval of list of acts and omissions.—The authority appointed under rule 10 on receipt of the lists prescribed in the preceding rule may, after such enquiry as he considers necessary, pass orders either,—

- (a) disapproving the lists;
- (b) approving the lists either in their original form or as amended by him, in which case such lists shall be considered to be approved lists, provided that no order disapproving or amending any lists shall be passed unless the employer shall have been given an opportunity of showing cause, orally or in writing why the lists as submitted by him should be approved.

13. Posting of list.—The employer shall display at or near the main entrance of the factory/industrial establishment a copy in English, together with a literal translation thereof, in Hindi of the list approved under rule 12.

14. Persons authorised to impose fines.—No fine may be imposed by any person other than an employer or a person holding an appointment named in a list submitted under rule 11.

15. Procedure in imposing fines and deductions.—Any person desiring to impose a fine on an employed person or to make a deduction for damage or loss shall explain personally to the said person the act or omission, or damage or loss, in respect of which the fine or deduction is proposed to be imposed and the amount of the fine or deduction, which it is proposed to impose, and shall hear his explanation in the presence of at least one other person.

16. Information to pay-master.—The person imposing a fine or directing the making of a deduction for damage or loss shall at once inform the pay-master of all particulars, so that the register prescribed in rule 3 or 4 may be duly completed.

Section 26 (3) (g):

17. Deduction for breach of contract.—(1) No deduction for breach of contract shall be made from the wages of an employed person who is under the age of fifteen years or is a woman.

(2) No deduction for breach of contract shall be made from the wages of any employed person unless—

- (a) there is provision in writing forming part of the terms of the contract of employment requiring him to give notice of the termination of his employment; and
  - (i) the period of this notice does not exceed fifteen days or the wage period, whichever is less; and
  - (ii) the period of this notice does not exceed the period of notice which the employer is required to give of the termination of that employment;
- (b) this rule has been displayed in English and in the language of the majority of the employed persons at or near the main entrance of the factory and has been so displayed for not less than one month before the commencement of the absence in respect of which the deduction is made;
- (c) a notice has been displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory giving the names of the persons from whom the deduction is proposed to be made, the number of days wages to be deducted and the conditions (if any) on which the deduction will be remitted:

Provided that where the deduction is proposed to be made from all the persons employed in any departments or sections of the factory, it shall be sufficient, in lieu of giving the names of the persons in such departments or sections, to specify the departments or sections affected.

(3) No deduction for breach of contract shall exceed the wages of the persons employed for the period by which the notice of termination of service given falls short of the period of such notice required by the contract of employment.

(4) If any conditions have been specified in the notice displayed under clause (c) of sub-rule (2) no deduction for breach of contract shall be made from any person who has complied with those conditions.

Section 26 (3) (i):

18. Advance.—(1) An advance of wages not already earned shall not without the previous permission of Inspector, exceed an amount equivalent to the wages earned by the employed person during the preceding two calendar months, or if he has not been employed for that period, twice the wages he is likely to earn during the two subsequent calendar months.

(2) The advance may be recovered in instalments by deductions from wages spread over not more than twelve months. No instalment shall exceed one-third, or where the wages for any wage period are not more than twenty rupees one-fourth of the wages for the wage period in respect of which the deduction is made.

(3) The amount of all advances sanctioned and the repayments thereof shall be entered in a register in Form III.

Section 26 (3) (a):

19. Annual return.—Every employer of the factory shall send a return in Form IV so as to reach the Labour Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh, Simla not later than the first of February following the end of the year to which it relates endorsing simultaneously a copy thereof to the Inspector having jurisdiction under the Act.

Section 26 (3) (i):

20. Costs.—(1) Where the Authority or the Courts, as the case may be, direct that any costs shall not follow the event, he shall state his reasons for so doing in writing.

(2) The costs which may be awarded shall include—

- (a) the charges necessarily incurred on account of court fees;
- (b) the charges necessarily incurred on subsistence money to witnesses; and
- (c) Pleader's fees which shall ordinarily be Rs. 10, provided that the authority or the Court, as the case may be in any proceedings, may reduce the fee to a sum of not less than Rs. 5 or increase it to a sum not exceeding Rs. 30.

21. The Authority or the Court, as the case may be, may fix fees on the payment of which any person entitled to do so may obtain copies of any documents filed with the Authority or the Court, as the case may be:

Provided that the Authority or the Court, as the case may be, may, in consideration of the poverty of the applicant, grant copies free of cost.

Section 26 (3) (k):

22. Fees.—The fee payable in respect of proceedings under the Act shall be—

- (i) For every application to summon a witness. Twenty-five paise in respect of each witness.
- (ii) For every other application made by or on behalf of an individual person before the authority. Fifty paise.
- (iii) For every other application made by or on behalf of an unpaid group before the authority. Twenty-five paise for each member of the group subject to a maximum of five rupees.
- (iv) For every appeal lodged with the Court. Five rupees:

Provided that the Authority or the Court may, in consideration of the poverty of the applicant, reduce or remit this fee.

Provided that no fee shall be chargeable in respect of an application presented by an Inspector.

ABSTRACT OF THE PAYMENT OF WAGES ACT, 1936 AND THE RULES MADE THEREUNDER

WHOM THE ACT AFFECTS:

1. The Act applies to the payment of wages to persons in this factory/industrial establishment receiving less than Rs. 1,000 a month.
2. No employed person can give up by contract, or agreement his rights under the Act.

DEFINITION OF WAGES:

“Wages” means all remuneration (whether by way of salary, allowances, or otherwise) expressed in terms of money or capable of being so expressed which would, if the terms of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled be payable to a person employed in respect of his employment or of work done in such employment, and includes—

- (a) Any remuneration payable under any award or settlement between the parties or order of a court;
- (b) any remuneration to which the person employed is entitled in respect of overtime work or holidays or any leave period;
- (c) any additional remuneration payable under the terms of employment whether called a bonus or by any other name;
- (d) any sum which by reason of the termination of employment of the person employed is payable under any law, contract or instrument which provides for the payment of such sum, whether with or without deductions, but does not provide for time within which the payment is to be made.
- (e) any sum to which the person employed is entitled under any scheme framed under any law for the time being in force; but does not include—
  - (1) any bonus (whether under a scheme of profit-sharing or otherwise) which does not form part of the remuneration payable under the terms of employment or which is not payable under any award or settlement between the parties or order of a court;
  - (2) the value of any house accommodation or of the supply of light water, medical attendance or other amenity or of any service, excluded from the computation of wages by a general or special order of the Himachal Pradesh Government;
  - (3) any contribution paid by the employer to any pension or provident fund, and the interest which may have accrued thereon;
  - (4) any travelling allowance or the value of any travelling concession;
  - (5) any sum paid to the employed person to defray special expenses entitled on him by the nature of his employment; or
  - (6) any gratuity payable on the termination of employment in cases other than those specified in sub-section (d).

RESPONSIBILITY FOR AND METHOD OF PAYMENT:

4. The manager of the factory is responsible for the payment under the Act of Wages to persons employed under him, and any contractor employing persons is responsible for payment to the persons he employs.

5. Wage periods shall be fixed for the payment of wages at intervals not exceeding one month.

6. Wages shall be paid on a working day within 7 days of the end of the wage period (or within 10 days if 1,000 or more persons are employed). The wages of a person discharged shall be paid not later than the second working day after his discharge.

7. Payments in kind are prohibited.

FINES AND DEDUCTIONS:

8. No deduction shall be made from wages except those authorised under the Act (See paragraph 9-15 below).

9. (1) Fines can be imposed only for such acts and omissions as the employer may, within the previous approval of the Labour Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh specify by a notice displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory and after giving the employed person an opportunity for explanation.

(2) Fines—

(a) shall not exceed three paise in the rupee.

- (b) shall not be recovered by instalments, or later than sixty days of the date of imposition.
- (c) shall be recorded in a register and applied to such purposes beneficial to the employed persons as are approved by the Labour Commissioner.
- (d) shall not be imposed on a child.

10. (a) Deductions for absence from duty can be made only on account of the absence of the employed person at times when he should be working and such deductions must not exceed an amount which is in the same proportion to his wages for the wage period, as the time he was absent in that period is to the total time he should have been at work.

(b) If ten or more employed persons, acting in contract, absent themselves without reasonable cause and without due notice, the deduction for absence can include wages for eight days in lieu of notice but—

- (1) no deduction for breaking a contract can be made from a person under 15 or a woman;
- (2) there must be a provision in writing which forms part of the contract of employment, requiring that a specific period of notice of intention to cease work not exceeding 15 days or the period of notice which the employer has to give to discharge a worker, must be given to the employer and that wages may be deducted in lieu of such notice.
- (3) the above provisions must be displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory;
- (4) no deduction of this nature can be made until a notice that this deduction is to be made has been posted at or near the main entrance of the factory;
- (5) no deduction must exceed the wages of the employed person for the period by which the notice, he gives of leaving employment is less than the notice he should give under his contract.

11. Deduction can be made for damage to or loss of goods expressly entrusted to an employed person or for loss of money for which he is required to account, where such damage or loss is due to his neglect or default. Such deduction cannot exceed the amount of the damage or loss caused and can be made only after giving the employed person an opportunity for explanation.

12. Deductions can be made equivalent, to the value thereof, for house accommodation, amenities, or services (other than tools and raw material) supplied by the employer, provided these are accepted by the employed person as a part of the terms of his employment and have in the case of amenities and services been authorised by order of the Government.

13. (a) Deductions can be made for the recovery of advances, or for adjustment of over-payment of wages.

(b) Advances made before the employment began can only be recovered from the first payment of wages for a complete wage period but no recovery can be made for advances given for travelling expenses before employment began.

(c) Advances of unearned wages can be made at the pay-master's discretion during employment but must not exceed the amount of two month's wages without the permission of an Inspector.

These advances can be recovered by instalments, spread over not more than 12 months and the instalments must not exceed 1/3rd, or if the wages are not more than Rs. 20 1/4th of the wages for any wage period.

14. Deductions can be made for subscription to and for repayment of advances from any recognised provident fund.

15. Deductions can be made for payments to co-operative Societies approved by the Government or to the postal insurance, subject to any conditions imposed by the Himachal Pradesh Government.

INSPECTIONS:

16. An Inspector can enter on any premises, and can exercise powers of inspection (including examination of documents and taking of evidence) as he may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of the Act.

COMPLAINTS OF DEDUCTIONS OR DELAYS:

17. Where irregular deductions are made from wages, or delays in payment take place, an employed person can make an application in the prescribed form within one year to the Authority appointed by the Himachal Pradesh Government for the purpose. All the Sub-Divisional Officers (Civil) have been appointed as Authorities under this Act within their respective jurisdiction. An application delayed beyond this period may be rejected unless sufficient cause for the delay is shown.

(2) Any legal practitioner, official of a registered trade union, Inspector under the Act, or other person acting with the permission of the Authority can make the complaint on behalf of an employed person.

(3) A single application may be presented by, or on behalf of any number of persons belonging to the same factory the payment of whose wages has been delayed.

ACTION BY THE AUTHORITY :

18. The authority may award compensation to the employed persons in addition to ordering the payment of delayed wages or the refund of illegal deductions.

If a malicious or vexatious complaint is made, the Authority may impose a penalty not exceeding Rs. 50 on the applicant and order that it be paid to the employer.

APPEAL AGAINST THE AUTHORITY:

19. An appeal in the prescribed form against a direction made by the Authority may be preferred within 30 days to the District Court.

- (a) by the pay-master if the total amount directed to be paid exceeds Rs. 300;
- (b) by an employed person, if the total amount of wages withheld from him or his co-workers, exceeds Rs. 50,
- (c) by a person directed to pay penalty for a malicious or vexatious application.

PUNISHMENTS FOR BREACHES OF THE ACT:

20. Any one delaying the payment of wages beyond the due date, or making any unauthorised deduction from wages is liable to a fine upto Rs. 500 but only if prosecuted with the sanction of the Authority or the Appellate Court.

21. The pay-master who—

- (1) does not fix a wage-period; or
- (2) makes payment in kind; or
- (3) fails to display at or near the main entrance of the factory this Abstract in English and in the language of the majority of the employed persons; or
- (4) breaks certain rules made under this Act; is liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

A complaint to this effect can be made only by the Inspector, or with his sanction.

Simla-171002, the 21st May, 1979

No. 7-111/76-LEP. Shram.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 26 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act No. 4 of 1936), the Governor of Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make the following rules for the purpose of the said Act, after their previous publication in the Rajpatra, Himachal Pradesh vide notification of even number, dated the 6th April, 1977.

DRAFT RULES

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Payment of Wages (Procedure) Rules, 1979.

2. Definitions.—In these Rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,

- (a) “the Act” means the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936);
- (b) “appeal” means and appeal under section 17;
- (c) “the Authority” means the authority appointed under sub-section (1) of section 15;
- (d) “the Court” means the court mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 17;
- (e) “employer” includes the persons responsible for the payment of wages under section 3;
- (f) “form” means a form appended to these Rules;
- (g) “Record of order or direction” means the record of an order dismissing either wholly or in part an application made under sub-section (2) of section 15 or of a direction made under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of that section kept in Form ‘F’;
- (h) “section” means the section of the Act;
- (i) the words and expressions defined in the Act shall be deemed to have the same meanings as are assigned to them in the Act.

3. Form of application.—Application under sub-section (2) of section 15 by or on behalf of an employed person or group of employed persons shall be made in duplicate in Form ‘A’ Form ‘B’ or Form ‘C’ as the case may be, one copy of which shall bear such Court fee as may be prescribed.

4. Authorisation.—The authorisation to act on behalf of an employed person or persons, under section 15 shall be given by a certificate in Form ‘D’ shall be presented to the authority hearing the application and shall form part of the record.

5. Permission to appeal.—Any person desiring the permission of the authority to act on behalf of any employed person or persons shall present to the authority a brief written statement explaining his interest in the matter, and the authority shall record an order on the statement, which in the case of refusal shall include reasons for the order, and shall incorporate it in the record.

6. Presentation of documents.—(1) Applications or other documents relevant to an application may be presented in person to the authority at any time during hours to be fixed by the authority, or may be sent to him by registered post.

(2) The authority shall at once endorse, or cause to be endorsed, on each document the date of the presentation or receipt as the case may be.

7. Refusal to entertain application.—The authority may refuse to entertain an application presented under rule 6, if after giving the application an opportunity of being heard, the authority is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing that—

- (a) the applicant is not entitled to present an application, or
- (b) the application is barred by reason of the provisions in the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 15, or
- (c) the applicant shows no sufficient cause for making a direction under section 15.

(2) The authority may refuse to entertain an application which is insufficiently stamped or is otherwise incomplete and, if he so refuses, shall return it at once with an indication of defects. If the application is presented again, after the defects have been made good, the date of representation shall be deemed to be the date of presentation for the purposes of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 15.

8. Appearance of parties.—(1) If the application is entertained the authority shall call upon the employer by a notice in Form 'E' to appear before him on a specified date together with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any, and shall inform the applicant of the date so specified.

(2) If the employer or his representative fails to appear on the specified date, the authority may proceed to hear and determine the application ex-parte.

(3) If the applicant fails to appear on the specified date, the Authority may dismiss the application:

Provided that an order passed under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3) may be set aside and the applicant re-heard on good cause being shown within one month of the date of the said order, notice being served on the opposite party of the date fixed for rehearing.

9. Record of proceedings.—(1) The authority shall in all cases enter the particulars indicated in Form 'F' and at the time of passing orders shall sign and date the Form.

(2) In a case where no appeal lies, no further record shall be necessary.

(3) In a case where an appeal lies, the authority shall record the substance of the evidence and shall append it under his signature to the record of order or direction.

10. Signature on forms.—Any form, other than a record of order, or direction which is required by these rules to be signed by the authority may be signed under his direction and on his behalf by an officer subordinate to him appointed by him in writing for this purpose.

11. Exercise of powers.—In exercise of the powers of a Civil Court conferred by section 18, the authority shall be guided in respect of procedure by the relevant orders of the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, with such alterations as the authority may find necessary, not affecting their substance, for adapting them to the matter before him, and save where they conflict with the express provisions of the Act or these rules.

12. Appeals.—(1) An appeal shall be preferred in duplicate in the form of a memorandum, one copy of which shall bear the prescribed court fee, setting forth concisely the grounds of objection to the order dismissing whether wholly or in part an application made under sub-section (2) of section 15 or a direction made under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of that section, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the said order or direction.

(2) When an appeal is lodged a notice shall issue to the respondent in Form 'G'.

(3) The court after hearing the parties and after such further enquiry, if any, as it may deem necessary, may confirm, vary, or set aside the order or direction from which the appeal is preferred, and shall make an order accordingly.

13. Inspection of documents.—Any employed person, or any employer or his representative, or any person permitted under sub-section (2) of section 15 to apply for a direction, shall be entitled to inspect any application, memorandum of appeal, or any other document filed with the authority or the Court, as the case may be, in a case to which he is a party, and may obtain copies thereof on payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

14. Order or direction when to be made.—The authority or the Court, as the case may be, after the case has been heard, shall make the order or direction either at once or as soon as practicable, on some future day; and when the order or direction is to be made on some future day, it shall fix a date for the purpose of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.

15. Appeal and savings.—The Himachal Pradesh Payment of Wages Rules, 1959, as in force in the areas, which comprised in Himachal Pradesh immediately before the 1st November, 1966 and the Punjab Payment of Wages Rules, 1937 as in force in the areas added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966 are hereby repealed, but all action taken and the orders made under the rules so repealed, shall so far as they are not inconsistent with these rules, be deemed to have been respectively taken and made under these rules.
